

Maximize the value of your content licenses

Share content freely and responsibly

The RightSphere rights advisory tool from Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) bridges the gap between information sharing and copyright compliance, and provides clear answers to content usage questions without interrupting your workflow.

RightSphere organizes your content licenses in one place, and displays those rights to employees without interrupting their work. Your colleagues get the answers they need to share content responsibly, you gain insight into the content employees want, and your organization benefits by reducing its risk of copyright infringement.

Benefits

- Rights information is a click away
- Simple to use
- Multiple service level options
- Employees share content responsibly

RightSphere service options

Choose the level of service that best meets your organization's needs.

RightSphere® Basic – included with the purchase of an Annual Copyright License from CCC – displays your CCC license rights for your employees from a simple link in their Web browser.

RightSphere® Plus – allows you to customize RightSphere features and integrate the tool with document ordering systems, library archives and other applications.

RightSphere® Premium – organizes all of your content rights from CCC, publishers, etc., and displays them for employees from a simple link in their Web browser. It also provides data on your organization's content usage to help inform future buying decisions.
