

OnCopyright Education Certificate Program

Practical copyright education for today's professional.

Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) is pleased to offer the OnCopyright Education Certificate Program. Developed for business and academic professionals who deal with copyright issues on a day-to-day basis, the program is comprised of industry-specific courses that target a variety of user communities and the challenges they face in managing copyright.

Whether you are responsible for managing compliance and ethics, obtaining permissions, organizing your organization's various license agreements, or dealing with content, OnCopyright Education's Certificate Program will guide you through the complex world of copyright.

The certificate program is comprised of a series of instructor-led eLearning courses incorporating group discussions, question and answer sessions and analyses of real-world scenarios, including group and individual activities. Upon completion of a 6 to 8 module program, participants receive a certificate.

You'll learn

- The principles of copyright
- When copyright permission may be needed
- How to evaluate potential exceptions and limitations to copyright protection
- Content sharing and its implications

Who should attend

Librarians, information specialists, rights and permissions staff, production staff, editors, sales team, faculty and staff members, administrators, course developers, IT managers and anyone who wants to gain an understanding of copyright considerations in their working environment.
