Additional search tips:

- You can use Advanced Search to refine your search criteria by specifying the publisher, author, country of publication or language.

- Be sure to search by publication title, not article title. For example, if you wish to use an article from The Wall Street Journal, search for "The Wall Street Journal."

- Searching by Standard Number (ISBN/ISSN) is the easiest way to get an exact match for the publication you are looking for.

- Searches are not case sensitive.
