

Ixxus Names Jonathan Brett-Harris as Managing Director

Former Thomson Reuters Executive Brings Decades of Experience in Driving Global Growth; Will Join Executive Team of Parent Organization CCC

May 2, 2017 – London – Ixxus, a software professional services firm and leading provider of information solutions, today announced the appointment of Jonathan Brett-Harris as Managing Director. In this role, Brett-Harris will oversee developing strategies and innovative technology solutions to transform the way Ixxus customers can use data and content to drive revenues and growth. Brett-Harris will also join the executive team of Ixxus' parent organization Copyright Clearance Center, Inc. (CCC).

“Jonathan brings an excellent record of delivering growth on a global scale in important verticals, including life sciences and healthcare,” said Tracey Armstrong, president and CEO, CCC. “His previous experience in the information industry and in professional services are a terrific fit with the combined teams of CCC and Ixxus. In the era of cloud computing and big data, digital transformation is an imperative for businesses. Ixxus has extensive expertise in delivering systems and a proven track record of effectively transforming businesses for a wide range of customers, including some of the world’s largest publishers. Under Jonathan’s leadership, Ixxus will continue to put the customer first and provide innovative solutions based on state-of-the-art technologies.”

Prior to joining Ixxus, Brett-Harris was executive vice president, managing director of life sciences, and global head of industry & proposition at Thomson Reuters, where he defined the industry segment strategy for the Intellectual Property & Science division. Previously, he served as vice president and managing director at Elan Corporation, where he led the UK, a global distribution team and created new channel strategies in Asia that substantially grew segment revenue. Brett-Harris has also held leadership roles at Genzyme Corporation, Hydron Limited, and Eli Lilly.

“Data and content are now at the epicenter of business strategy in nearly every industry, and Ixxus is a recognized leader in helping publishers and content owners maximize the ROI of cloud computing and big data investments related to their content strategies,” said Brett-Harris, managing director, Ixxus. “I’m excited to join such a talented team as we continue to innovate and develop robust solutions to deliver the true value of digital transformation for our customers.”
