

Multinational License

Extend your Annual Copyright License coverage to employees around the world

Copyright laws vary widely from country to country, making compliance a challenge especially when you have employees located in various parts of the world. These challenges include the lawful use and sharing of content among employees within countries, in different countries and scattered among corporate subsidiaries. What's more, copyright compliance at the global level is further complicated by the vast amount of easily accessible content found online.

Without a solution in place that addresses the use and distribution of electronic and other content internationally, foreign-based employees may be inadvertently putting your organization at risk of copyright infringement. With the Multinational License, Copyright Clearance Center (CCC) makes it easy for you to ensure these employees are copyright compliant.

WITH THE MULTINATIONAL LICENSE, EMPLOYEES BASED OUTSIDE THE U.S. CAN:

- Collaborate with co-workers by emailing, photocopying or posting information on intranet sites.
- Share articles and other content in company newsletters, training materials and presentations.
- Distribute news from websites, newspapers and industry journals to sales teams and customer service groups.
- Submit electronic and paper filings to government agencies for regulatory purposes.

A COMPLIANCE SOLUTION FOR EMPLOYEES WORLDWIDE

As the Reproduction Rights Organization for the U.S. and a member of the International Federation of Reproduction Rights Organizations (IFRRO), CCC understands the intricacies of copyright law and licensing at the global level.

The Multinational License extends the coverage of your Annual Copyright License to your employees located outside the United States. Employees in more than 180 countries can use and share copyright-protected print and digital materials within your company without tracking and management hassles, just like your U.S.-based employees.
