

Copyright Clearance Center Announces, 'We Not Me' Charity Event

More Than 500 Employees Across Four Countries Participating in 24 Events Over Five Days

June 4, 2019 – Danvers, Mass. – Copyright Clearance Center, Inc. (CCC), a leader in advancing copyright, accelerating knowledge, and powering innovation, announces its second annual 'We Not Me' charity event taking place in June. More than 500 employees across four countries will be participating in 24 events over five days.

"Individual action is tremendously powerful," said Tracey Armstrong, President and CEO, CCC. "Positive change is brought about through the aggregation of individual actions. The cumulative result of each person contributing to the common good applies to every aspect of our lives, both in and out of the office."

CCC employees will be volunteering for a wide variety of charities in the U.S., U.K., Spain, and Romania, including those that aid victims of domestic violence and individuals and families living in poverty, as well as those that work to support the environment, and so much more. Participating organizations include: Ability Beyond, Alzheimer's Association, ARC Northeast, Beverly School for the Deaf, Boys & Girls Club, Catie's Closet, Cradles to Crayons, El Olivo, Endicott Park, The Food Project, Habitat for Humanity, HAWC, Ipswich Watershed, Ironstone Farm, Life Bridge, Massachusetts Trustees of the Reservations, Societatea Ornitologica Romana, Stave Ecological Park, WellSpring House, Windrush Farm, and The Wish Project.

With a history of innovation and growth in a dynamic market, a passionate and dedicated team, and a deep commitment to building next-generation content and licensing solutions using the best technology and talent, CCC offers its employees stability within an entrepreneurial culture while providing very competitive benefits. The CCC team is always learning, developing new skills, and exploring new and better ways to help society clear a path to information, discovery, and the next 'big idea.'

Over the last 12 months, CCC has won several industry awards:

- Top 100 Women-Led Businesses in Massachusetts
