OA AGREEMENT MANAGER WORKFLOW

With the help of publishers, research institutions and funders, Copyright Clearance Center has created in RightsLink® an efficient way of helping research and funding institutions to manage open access or article processing charges (APCs). Once set up, the OA Agreement Manager workflow either enables authors to request APC funding or automatically requests funding on their behalf without ambiguity or confusion, lets you see and approve or deny requests immediately, and gives you a clear way to track each manuscript and all funds that are allocated. The manual that follows describes how you work with publishers to establish the workflow and how to access and use the institutional portal to manage your open access business with RightsLink® publishers.

Note: The manual does not describe elements whose action and use are obvious. Rather, it helps you to understand the interaction with publishers along with your role in ensuring a smooth funding process for your researchers.

WHAT'S AN AGREEMENT?

These represent a transformative agreement that may have been signed with one or many institutions. The 'rules of engagement' still lie within the billing profile, but the agreement gives the publisher the opportunity to group these together so that the agreement can be reported upon as a whole. Sometimes there is a need to have many profiles representing each institution within an agreement, and sometimes there is only needed to have a 1:1 relationship with a profile and an agreement. In the Institution Portal you can view which agreement your profiles are part of.

WHAT'S A BILLING PROFILE?

Publishers can see and manage special billing profiles within an agreement that are set up with institutional customers. In this portal, the profiles can be viewed and after initial creation some aspects can be edited. These profiles can reflect legal contracts that might span one or more years or informal billing arrangements. The purpose of the profile is to capture the key attributes of your billing or offsetting arrangements so that the payment workflow is pre-populated with critical information, such as the billing address and contact for the invoice, your contact information for APC questions, the license required by the funding agency (if applicable), your VAT/Tax information if needed, and more.

NOTE

By using the metadata from the manuscript and the attributes from the profile, we remove elements of confusion for authors to request and promptly receive APC funding, allowing their research to be published as soon as possible.

GETTING STARTED: ORDER OF EVENTS

1. The publisher sets up the basic attributes of an agreement and the profiles within them in the publisher-facing portal (their instance of the software).

At minimum, your publisher will need to confirm with you the following information that will be reflected in the profile:

- a) Complete contact information for the person who should receive your APC invoices, including:
 - First and last names of invoice recipient
 - Email address of invoice recipient
 - Phone number of invoice recipient
 - Full physical address
- b) VAT country and VAT ID
If you want this information to be used on every transaction.
- c) Purchase order number (PO#)
If there is a contract-level purchase order or reference number that should show up on every order.
- d) Eligible products
Will you fund open access charges only or page or color charges as well?
- e) Creative Commons License
Does your agreement require a specific license for manuscripts? If so, which Creative Commons licenses are eligible?
- f) Author eligibility
Are only primary or corresponding authors eligible for funding or is any co-author eligible?
- g) Invoice grouping & frequency
*Do you want to receive invoices daily, semi-monthly, monthly, quarterly or semi-annually?
Should the invoice be aggregated or be per transaction?*
- h) The preferred transactional currency for APC orders that show up in the invoice.
- i) Start and end date of the contract.
- j) Setting the initial APC Token or Threshold Balance (if necessary)
APC tokens are a set number of free or discounted transactions that may have been written into your agreements. Applying APC tokens to profiles will allow funding requests to come through at a reduced or $0 rate, until those tokens have all been used.

An APC threshold represents an up-front deposit made by you to the publisher to cover APC fees up to a certain monetary value. It could also represent some sort of monetary OA spending cap on certain Read & Publish agreements. When an accepted manuscript is checked out and matches a profile with a threshold amount set, the system knows the total running value of all orders placed under the profile. If the current order will not put the profile over its threshold, we'll apply a 100% discount to the transaction and no fees will be due from the institution. If the current order would push the profile over the threshold, we will only apply the remaining available amount and anything leftover will be added to your invoice. If the total threshold has been met already, we will not apply a discount and fees will apply according to your journal and profile pricing implementation.

k) Touch-Free Transactions

Should the author be involved in creating the funding request or should we leave them out of the processs and just let them know if funding has been approved or denied at the end?

l) Contact names and email addresses for notifications

Notifications are sent to funders and / or institutions when a manuscript has been accepted and when an author has requested funding approval. These contacts will receive access to the Institutional Portal.

2. You and your team will receive welcome emails to the Institutional Portal. This is your invitation to log into the portal for the first time and to update your temporary password.
3. You can review the profile(s), add or update contact information, and specify rules related to purchase orders (see Funding Requests section below). Note: When you add additional users, we will need to set up special permissions in our backend. Please send an email to publicationservices@copyright.com to request setup for additional users.
4. Review and Approve funding requests as you receive notifications to do so.
(see Funding Requests section)

Welcome to the RightsLink® Institutional Portal. Use the Billing Profiles tab to view the special billing profiles we have on file between your institution and RightsLink® client publishers. Use the Funding Requests tab to review and act on your queue of funding requests for researchers affiliated with your institution. Use the Reports tab to search and download a report of the APC transactions associated with your account. In the future, there will be an Invoices tab for you to review and pay your invoices online.

Billing Profiles Funding Requests Reports

The table below includes any funding requests that have been matched to one of your special billing profiles.

APPROVE When you approve funding for a manuscript, the transaction will be completed, assigned an Order ID, and when a balance is due, included in your next invoice based on the schedule defined in that agreement's profile.

DENY If you deny funding you will be prompted to provide a deny reason to inform the author of your decision. The author will have the opportunity to self-fund the transaction, resubmit for funding based on your deny reason, or elect to publish under a subscription model, as available.

The landing page has three tabs, Billing Profiles, Funding Requests, and Reports. Funding Requests is the default page as you will use it most often.

As the screen shows, the funding requests table will display all funding requests from your authors for articles accepted for publication by participating RightsLink® publishers.

- Sorting on Status enables you to bring to the top all articles that need your attention:
 - Requests that you have acted upon are greyed out.
 - Requests that require action, have an Approve or Deny option in the far-right “Actions” column.
- Click on a value in the Total Fees Due column to see the order details, including a breakdown of charges, discounts applied, and licenses chosen by the author.
- Click on the arrow to the left of the funding request to expand the view and see more information (where available in the manuscript metadata) to help you make a funding decision, including Secondary Author(s) and their affiliations, funders and grant IDs, Journal, DOI, License, Manuscript Type, Submission Date, Acceptance Date and if a token or threshold discount was applied to the transaction APC Token or Threshold Value.

FUNDING REQUEST STATUSES – Funding Requests tab

A user logged into the Institutional Portal will view all funding requests that have been matched to one of the special billing profiles. The funding request can be in one of three statuses as described in the table below:

STATUS	DESCRIPTION
Pending	The status of a funding request after it has been successfully submitted for review. It will remain in this state until a permissioned user takes action to either Approve or Deny the funding request in the Institutional Portal or unless a profile is set to auto-approval.
Approved	The status of a funding request once a user has selected to Approve the request and has completed the “approve” confirmation process.
Denied	The status of a funding request once a user has selected to Deny the request and has completed the “deny” confirmation process. The denial process includes the ability to provide feedback to the author as to why the request was denied – this feedback is displayed in the Funding Request Denial email.

AGREEMENT STATUS – PubPortal – Institutional Account tab

A user logged into PubPortal and on the Institutional Accounts landing page will view the list of agreements currently on file that group one or more Special Billing Profiles together to represent on transformative agreement. Agreements can be in one of two status:

STATUS	DESCRIPTION
Active	An agreement is considered active if one or more of the billing profiles associated with the agreement are currently active (see below)
Inactive	An agreement is considered active if none of the billing profiles associated with the agreement are currently active (see below) or there are no profiles associated with it.

PROFILE STATUSES – PubPortal – Institutional Accounts tab

A user logged into PubPortal and on the Institutional Accounts tab can view the list of billing profiles currently on file between the organization and other institutions and funders under ‘My Profiles’. The billing profiles can be in one of three states or statuses as described in the table below:

STATUS	DESCRIPTION
Active	The status of a billing profile when the profile is first created and the start date is in the present.
Suspended	The status of a billing profile after a permissioned user logs into PubPortal and clicks to open an Active billing profile in Update/Edit mode. The user clicks the “SUSPEND” button at the top right corner of the billing profile. Note: The “SUSPEND” button will be relabeled “REACTIVATE”. A user can click this “Reactivate” button to return the selected billing profile to “Active” status.
Expired	A billing profile that has a specified “End Date” will reach this status once the End Date has passed. Once a billing profile has “expired”, it cannot be reactivated.

*Billing profile status modification history is logged by the system.

Searching Funding Requests

Click the “Show Advanced Search” link at the top of your Funding Requests list to see a suite of fields you can use to search for a key request. If you need to review older requests you already acted on, or have many outstanding requests and want to prioritize certain ones, this tool is a great way to isolate types of requests.

The screenshot shows the 'Funding Requests' tab in a web application. At the top, there are three tabs: 'Billing Profiles', 'Funding Requests', and 'Reports'. Below the tabs, a message states: 'The table below includes any funding requests that have been matched to one of your special billing profiles.' Below this message are two buttons: 'APPROVE' (green) and 'DENY' (orange). The 'APPROVE' button has a tooltip that says: 'When you approve funding for a manuscript, the transaction will be completed, assigned an Order ID, and when a balance is due, included in your next invoice based on the schedule defined in that agreement's profile.' The 'DENY' button has a tooltip that says: 'If you deny funding you will be prompted to provide a deny reason to inform the author of your decision. The author will have the opportunity to self-fund the transaction, resubmit for funding based on your deny reason, or elect to publish under a subscription model, as available.' Below the buttons is a link that says 'Hide Advanced Search'. Below the link is a section titled 'Search for Funding Request'. This section contains two columns of search fields. The left column has fields for: Article Title, DOI, Primary Author First Name, Primary Author Last Name, Primary Author Affiliation, Publisher, and Funder. The right column has fields for: Agreement Name, Profile Name, Touch-Free (a dropdown menu with 'All' selected), Status (a dropdown menu with 'All' selected), Order Date (a dropdown menu with 'In last 30 days' selected), and Accept Date (a dropdown menu with 'In last 30 days' selected). At the bottom right of the search section are two buttons: 'Search' (orange) and 'Clear' (gray).

Approving Funding Requests

Click the green Approve button and the following pop-up will appear, asking you to confirm your intent to approve funding.

The screenshot shows a pop-up dialog titled 'Approve Request'. The dialog has a close button (X) in the top right corner. Inside the dialog, there is a section for 'Article Title' with the value 'Science of Accupuncture' and a section for 'Author(s)' with the value 'Smith, John'. Below these fields is a note: '*By selecting Approve you are authorizing this request to be included in your next invoice.' At the bottom of the dialog are two buttons: 'CANCEL' (gray) and 'APPROVE' (green). The background of the screenshot shows a blurred view of the 'Funding Requests' page with a table of requests. The table has columns for 'Article Title', 'Author(s)', 'Status', 'Order Date', and 'Accept Date'. The first row of the table shows 'Science of Accupuncture', 'Smith, John', 'In last 30 days', and 'In last 30 days'.

Once approved:

The order confirmation page is updated to reflect a Funding Approved message displayed above the charges table. Note: If the profile does not have Touch-Free transactions enabled, and therefore the author completed the funding request themselves, they can view the Order Confirmation from within their Manage Account portal, by clicking their original payment due link or, in many cases, by clicking an APC link from within their submission systems' author dashboard.

The transaction appears on the next eligible invoice per the billing profile's "Invoice Grouping" and "Invoice Frequency" settings.

Denying Funding Requests

When you Deny a funding request, the following screen appears:

The drop-down list includes pre-defined reasons for denying a funding request:

- APC exceeds max fee limit
- Missing required Creative Commons license
- Funding no longer available
- Questioning Author Affiliation
- Other (note below).

If you select “Other (note below)”, then you will be prompted to supply your author with a supplementary note (i.e., additional instructions and information for my researcher) that appears in the Deny email that is automatically sent to the author upon submission of the denial pop-up.

Funding statuses, including deny reasons, appear in your Reports so that you can easily filter and analyze patterns.

Here is a sample of the author-facing funding denied email:

Your APC funding request has been denied.

What's in a Name?

OA continues to grow in complexity as universities and other institutions allocate more funds to OA publishing on behalf of their scholars. As they do, individual departments, colleges, laboratories, libraries, and philanthropic organizations may become sources of funds. Your OA work with any publisher may require several profiles to cover the range of funding possibilities. Forethought on naming conventions will prove valuable in establishing profiles.

Each publisher will define its own name, and that name will be shown in the Profile Name column.

Since different publishers will use different naming conventions to define their Profiles, the Profile Nickname field is provided so that your institution can add your own naming convention to suit your purposes.

Where profiles may be linked by the same transformative agreement, they will be associated to the same Agreement Name.

NAVIGATING THE PROFILES

Profiles are the list of agreements that publishers have set up with a research organization.

From your version of this page, which appears under Billing Profiles, you can:

- Select any Profile Name to view its details
- Assign an internal nickname to each profile—if that is useful for you.
- Select the notifications icon to view notifications set up for that profile
- Turn on or off the automatic approval of all funding requests under that profile

 - APC Threshold – Value of Approved Funding Requests
 - APC Threshold – Value of Funding Requests Pending Decision
- Clicking the Automatic Approvals checkbox will cause all funding requests for that profile to be automatically approved without the need for someone to approve manually from the funding requests tab.
NOTE: Funding requests from a Touch-Free transaction are not autoapproved unless the automatic approval checkbox is checked for that profile.

EDITING THE PROFILE

You can select to edit a section of the profile by selecting the edit icon:

CONTACTS

The icon is only available where there are editable fields in that section. The fields that you may edit after the billing profile has been created by any publisher include:

Contacts

Contacts are the people in your institution who, typically, approve or deny funding requests and who should receive notice when your researchers have a manuscript accepted that needs funding approval. Make changes to the contacts as necessary. If you have indicated multiple contacts, you can designate one as the primary contact. If notifications become too frequent, you can suppress the notifications and log into the portal regularly.

PLEASE NOTE: when you specify contact information, the primary contact's name, email address, and phone number will be shared with your researchers throughout the APC funding request workflow, as highlighted below

Institution Note to Authors

Under the Workflow Options section, you can add a note that appears when authors begin the RightsLink® APC payment workflow AND their manuscript matches one of your profiles.

In the sample above you will see this field labeled “NOTE FROM YOUR INSTITUTION”.

Your message appears when an author seeks funding approval for any manuscript that matches a billing profile.

NOTE: If Touch-Free transactions are enabled on the profile, the author does not see the RightsLink® APC payment workflow, so they will not see any message entered here.

Contract PO#

Use this field to update the PO that should automatically appear on every transaction and on your invoices:

Note: For purchase orders, you can specify a contract-level Purchase Order (PO) that appears on every transaction or you can specify that a unique PO must appear on each transaction related to any profile. If the latter, check “unique order reference number is required for all funding requests” box. If this checkbox is selected, authors who forget to enter a PO during the payment workflow will be prompted to do so before checking out.

☐ Unique order reference number is required on all funding requests.

Note: If you check this box your authors will not be able to proceed through the payment workflow unless they enter a PO#. If there is a contract PO# listed above, this option is unavailable.

The Status of a profile will either be Active, Suspended or expired. A profile might be suspended, for example, if you are negotiating a new contract. When profiles are suspended, authors are still invited by their publishers to check out under the standard payment workflow in which the author pays directly or specifies manually where the invoice should be sent. None of these standard transactions will show up in the Funding Requests dashboard of this portal.

Automatic Approval

Automatic Approvals ▾

Automatic Approval means that when a funding request is submitted under a particular profile (by the author or automatically), you automatically approve the funds for publication. Upon submitting an invoice for approval, the author will immediately receive notice of approval by email. These transactions will be reflected in your next invoice and in your transaction reports available through the portal (see Reports tab).

Custom Notifications can be created so that a contact or contacts can be notified when a value has been met. Clicking on the icon will take you to a Manage Notifications page for that profile, where notifications can be viewed, created, edited or deleted. The icon shows how many active and inactive notifications each profile has.

CUSTOM NOTIFICATIONS

A notification will alert a contact or contacts by email that a value has been reached. This could be that there are only W number of APC tokens left, X number of APC tokens have been used, Y amount of APC threshold left or Z amount has been spent. You can view, create, edit or delete notifications via the Manage Notifications page, which can be found by clicking on the notifications icon on the Billing Profiles Dashboard.

From the Manage Notifications page, you can see a summary of each notification created for that profile and whether they have been triggered yet. If they have been triggered, they are regarded as inactive and a triggered date displays. If they have yet to be triggered, the notification is regarded as active.

Creating a New Notification

Selecting the button to create a new notification from the Manage Notifications Page will load the create notification form where you can customize your notification

The screenshot shows the 'Create Notification' form for a 'TEST Profile'. The form is titled 'Create Notification for TEST Profile_APC Thresholds_Active'. It has two main sections: '1. SELECT CONTACTS' and '2. SELECT TRIGGER'. In the 'SELECT CONTACTS' section, there is a dropdown menu labeled 'Select Contact'. In the 'SELECT TRIGGER' section, there are four radio buttons for selecting the trigger: 'Amount Approved for Invoicing', 'Number of APC Tokens Used', 'Number of APC Tokens Remaining', and 'APC Threshold - Funds Remaining'. Below these is a text input field for 'has reached' with a placeholder 'Enter a positive, numeric value'. A paragraph explains that this number is the threshold that will trigger the email. Below this are four bullet points explaining the triggers. At the bottom right are 'CANCEL' and 'SAVE' buttons.

STANDARD NOTIFICATIONS

1. Manuscript Acceptance Notice to Organization

When a manuscript matches one of your special billing profiles that has not got Touch-Free enabled and the manuscript has been accepted, the organizational contacts on the profile will receive the following email:

One of your researchers has had a manuscript accepted for publication.

Dear Jennifer Goodrich,

A recently accepted manuscript has been matched to your special APC billing profile, University A. The author(s) will be notified of acceptance and given the opportunity through the RightsLink platform to request funding from you for applicable APC charges. If they do, you will have the opportunity to approve or deny the request from your RightsLink Funding Requests page.
