Copyright Clearance Center Names Boris Vulikh to Lead Data Engineering Team

Former Data Architect at Google Now Director, Data Engineering, for Global Leader of Content Workflow and Rights Licensing Technology

Danvers, Mass. – [Copyright Clearance Center, Inc.](http://Copyright Clearance Center, Inc.) (CCC), a global licensing and content solutions organization, announced former Google Data Architect Boris Vulikh has joined as Director, Data Engineering.

Before moving to CCC, Vulikh was Senior Data Architect at ITA Software, a travel industry software division of Google. Previously, he was Lead Data Architect/Development Manager at Amicas, a leading independent provider of imaging IT solutions in healthcare; and before that he was Data Architect for the Boston Stock Exchange.

“Our vision is to provide global content workflow and licensing solutions that make copyright work,” said Babis Marmanis, CTO & Vice President, Engineering and Product Development, CCC. “Boris is a key addition to the engineering team as we continue our expansion beyond simply clearing copyright permissions and providing compliance products to delivering advanced, integrated technology and data solutions.”

Based in Danvers, Vulikh leads a global team responsible for Master Data Management, Data Warehousing and Data Marts, and Business Intelligence and Analytics.
